An Introduction to Leadership at Trinity Church Modbury

"Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ to further the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness"

Titus 1:1

Those who would be leaders of other people in God's church, which is his household, need to know with clarity the goals God has for his people. God revealed to the apostle Paul that his & our goals for people should be:

1. That they have genuine faith in Jesus as their Lord and Saviour
2. That they have knowledge of the truth of the gospel and its implications
3. That they have godliness that accords with the knowledge of the truth

Leaders of God's people must share God's goals for his people.

[See also 1 Timothy 3:14-16]

"Set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity"

1 Timothy 4:12

We cannot lead God's people where we ourselves have not been led by God. If leaders do not themselves have genuine faith in Jesus, knowledge of the truth, and godliness, then they must not be leading others. If they did lead others, they would risk the salvation of those people by leading them away from Jesus. They also risk dragging down the name of Jesus in the world.

So, leaders...

1. Must be respectable, sincere, careful with alcohol, not after dishonest gain
2. Must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience
3. Must be sexually faithful by keeping all sexual activity for lifelong heterosexual marriage
4. Their spouse must be faithful in all these things too
5. If they have a family, they must be leading them well
6. They must demonstrate this way of living before being made a leader

Leaders must be living this way so that no one can legitimately say otherwise.

"For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age"

Titus 2:11-12

God says that it is the gospel that both saves people and teaches people to change. Leaders must believe that God knows what is healthy for his people. This means they must do whatever they can to help the people they lead to be truly led by the gospel and the healthy teaching that goes with it.

1. Some leaders enable gospel shaped teaching by helping other leaders to be freed to focus on it.
2. Some leaders are involved in gospel shaped teaching. These leaders must also be willing and able to confront those who oppose it.

All leaders must recognise, prioritise and play their part in defending gospel shaped teaching.
